Notice

For Kind Attention of the ICHR-JRF Awardees (1999-2015)

Subject: Non-submission of final report/thesis by the ICHR JRF Awardees.

Dear Scholar,

ICHR Junior Research Fellowship was awarded to you by the Council for a period of 2 years for your Ph.D research work. As per the undertaking signed by you, you had agreed to complete the research work and submit the thesis/final work report after completion of the work within stipulated period, failing which the entire amount will be refunded to the ICHR. In case, if you have not submitted the final report, kindly send the same at the earliest. If you don't take cognizance to this Notice, it would be presumed that the amount released to you through the ICHR has not been spent and in that case according to ICHR's Research Funding Rules the released amount should be returned to the ICHR immediately in favour of "The Member Secretary, ICHR".

Applicable to the JRF Awardees up to2011

Serious objections have been raised by the office of the Comptroller Auditor General of India (CAG) with regard to non-submission of the research work on time. In case, if you do not submit the final report, the Council will be compelled to ask the affiliating institution to refund the entire amount, declare you a defaulter and you will be debarred from availing any of the ICHR grant/fellowship in future.

Applicable to the JRF Awardees (2012-2015)

In all likelihood serious objections will be raised by the office of the Comptroller Auditor General of India (CAG) with regard to non-submission of the research work on time. In case, if you do not submit the final report, the Council will be compelled to ask you to refund the entire amount and declare you a defaulter and you will be debarred from availing any of the ICHR grant/fellowship in future.
