

INDIAN COUNCIL OF HISTORICAL RESEARCH

annual report
1979-80

ANNUAL REPORT 1979-80

GENERAL

This is the eighth Annual Report of the Indian Council of Historical Research (ICHR) covering the year 1979-80.

The ICHR is an autonomous body established by the Government of India in 1972 in recognition of the need for giving a proper direction to historical research and fostering objective and scientific writing of history. It is composed of 27 members: A Chairman, 18 Historians and 8 ex-officio members. The present Council was reconstituted in November, 1978. The year under report saw the sad demise of one of the members of the Council, Professor Mohammad Yasin who was Professor of History in the University of Kashmir, Srinagar. The vacancy that arose on this account was filled by the nomination of Dr Raghbir Singh, Sitamau, Malwa (M.P.).

The composition of the Council as on 31st March 1980 is given in Appendix I.

During the year, as in previous years, the Council's main concern has been that of fulfilling those aims and objectives of the Council that merited high priority. It has covered sanction of research projects, award of research fellowships, grant of assistance towards study/travel/contingent expenditure, release of subsidy for publishing research studies, source material, journals etc., and sanction of aid to professional organisations of historians. Besides these, the other programmes executed are broadly classifiable under the following categories: compilation of sources of ancient, medieval and modern periods of Indian history, preparation of survey reports reviewing the progress of historical research, execution of projects entrusted to the Council by the Government of India, holding of seminars on subjects relating to some aspects of history, international collaboration, publication, documentation etc.

II

BUDGET

A marked feature of the year under report was the improvement in the budgetary position of the Council as against the earlier years. Under the revised budget estimates for the year 1979-80 for non-plan and plan programmes the Council had worked out the requirement at 9.31 and 24 lacs respectively. While the proposals for non-plan estimates were accepted by the Government almost in toto those under plan were reduced to Rs. 20.65 lacs, which was received from the Government of India. As this was about 3.35 lacs less than the required amount, the plan programmes of the Council was recast accordingly.

Since its inception the Council has been getting only ad hoc grants for the Translation Project. At the beginning of the year under report, commitments by way of payment to translators and vetters and maintenance charges in respect of some of the language units remained unfulfilled due to paucity of funds. However, due to the grant of Rs. 7,21,142 for this project by the Government, a major part of the commitments was fulfilled. Besides this, the Council also received from the Government a grant of Rs. 2,88,315 for the project on 'Towards Freedom', thus taking the total grant received for Special Projects to Rs. 10,09,457.

PROMOTIONAL ACTIVITIES THROUGH GRANT-IN-AID SCHEMES

A major means through which promotional activities were conducted was the grant-in-aid scheme. Under this scheme grants are sanctioned and released for research projects, fellowships, study/travel/contingent expenditure, publication and institutions. During the year 200 scholars were sanctioned grant for projects/fellowships and contingent expenditure alone. The following table shows the scheme-wise break-up of sanctioned grants during successive years since the inception of the Council:

Year	Research Projects	Fellowships	Study/Travel Contingent Grants	Total of Columns 2, 3 and 4
1	2	3	4	5
1972-73	19	8	1	28
1973-74	8	11	2	21
1974-75	7	14	3	24
1975-76	18	12	15	45
1976-77	21	37	82	140
1977-78	5	21	159	185
1978-79	22	31	115	168
1979-80	18	44	138	200
8 years	118	178	515	811

It may be seen from the above statistical statement that out of 811 research proposals sanctioned by the Council so far, 515 are cases of study grant essentially meant for young scholars and teachers desiring to visit different places for collection of source materials in connection with their research pursuits. The Council's policy of sanctioning this grant has succeeded in generating research efforts in various places in India thereby remedying the earlier situation in which research tended to be concentrated in a few centres only. As may be seen from the factual details furnished in Appendices II-IV, the Council has in its sanction of projects, fellowships and other grants, taken the word history in a wider sense including in its connotation the 'history' of art, literature, philosophy and allied subjects like archaeology, epigraphy, numismatics, historical study of manuscripts etc. In fact the Council's aim has been to promote the study of these fields with a strong historical bias and content.

During the year 36 scholars/institutions were sanctioned subsidy for publishing their theses/manuscripts/journals/proceedings. Details in respect of the publication subsidy are given in Appendix V.

Twentytwo Professional Organisations of Historians were given grants during the year to enable them to organize seminars, conferences etc. Details of these are furnished in Appendix VI.

IV COMPILATION OF SOURCES

This has been undertaken by the Council to facilitate giving a strong source orientation to the teaching of history in universities and colleges and to provide requisite published source material to meet the needs of research students and teachers. The Council had in 1972-73 drawn up a comprehensive programme of compiling, editing and annotating source material. In subsequent years attempts have been made to implement this and take up new ventures under this programme. The nature of this work is such that it requires collaborative efforts of a number of specialists for its effective fulfilment. To do this, review the progress made and prepare plans for further action three committees were constituted in 1972-73, one each for the ancient, medieval and modern periods of Indian History. These committees and their sub-committees have been reconstituted from time to time.

So far as Ancient Indian History is concerned, the following three committees/sub-committees met during the year under report for reviewing the progress made so far and for preparing plans for new schemes:

- (1) Inscriptions Committee
- (2) Sources Committee (Ancient Indian History)
- (3) Vijayanagara Inscriptions Committee

The Inscriptions Committee reviewed the progress made in the Inscriptions of India Programme of ICHR taken up in 1973 and envisaging the compilation of 25 volumes of inscriptions ranging in time from the sixth to the fifteenth century. It was noted that nine of these volumes were under compilation by the Archaeological Survey of India under its Corpus Inscriptionum Indicarum series and therefore had to be dropped from ICHR's programme. Of the remaining 16 volumes, 4 have already been compiled and received in the Council. At the end of the year 3 more volumes were nearing completion while work in respect of other volumes was progressing.

One of the volumes under this series pertains to Vijayanagara dynasties. As Vijayanagara inscriptions are in four different languages, a sub-committee has been set up to work out academic details regarding this volume.

The Sources Committee (Ancient Indian History) met in November, 1979 and recommended the following action:

- (1) Preparation of a subject-wise compilation of sources, especially those relating to social and economic history.
- (2) Preparation of critical editions/translations of texts (in Sanskrit and other Indian languages) of the period prior to A.D. 1200.
- (3) Preparation of catalogues of coins in different museums in India.

At the end of the year the Council was taking action for working out details of these schemes so that they could be undertaken during the subsequent year.

Besides the volumes on inscriptions mentioned above the Council had received during the year volume VII of 'A Topographical List of Inscriptions of Tamil Nadu and Kerala' from Professor T.V. Mahalingam. Six volumes under this were received during previous years and two more are expected to be received during 1980-81.

The sources programme relating to medieval Indian history includes editing, annotation, translation and publication of texts, compilation and translation of documents in Indian and European languages, calendaring and cataloguing of documents of historical value etc. Details regarding the volumes received upto 1978-79 have been furnished in the respective reports for earlier years. During the year 1979-80 the English translation of Shahnama-i-Munawwar Kalam was published.

During the year it was decided to take up the following new works:

1. Indo-Persian Epigraphy from Rajasthan: AD 1206-1526: Compilation of Inscriptions by Dr M.S. Ahluwalia
- 2i Translation of two Persian manuscripts, Manazil-ul-Insha of Mahmud Gawan and Mathia-i-Asafi of Laxmi Narain Shafai by Dr Mir Nizamuddin Alikhan

3. A Catalogue of Persian Manuscripts and Records in Sir Raghbir Library, Sitamau by Mr A. H. Nizami
4. Seraj-al-Hadiya by Qazi Sajjad Hussain.

The scheme for the preparation of source material on Modern Indian History was prepared in 1972. This included the preparation of :

- (a) A series of volumes on the 19th century Economic History.
- (b) A series of volumes on Statistics of Modern Indian History (from the beginning of the 19th century to 1947).
- (c) A series of volumes of documents on the development of National Movement in India.
- (d) A volume on Internal Resistance to British Rule before 1858.
- (e) A series of volumes on India's attainment of independence.

In implementation of this scheme the Council initiated work for compiling a number of volumes on the Nationalist Movement, Peasant Movement, Trade Union Movement, Economic and Statistical Data, Zamindari Records of Bihar, Role of Revolutionaries abroad in India's struggle for independence etc. Details regarding the volumes so far received have been furnished in the report for previous years. During the year the work of compiling other volumes was progressing.

V

OTHER PROGRAMMES AND ACTIVITIES

A Dictionary of Indian Archaeology

The preparation of A Dictionary of Indian Archaeology was one of the suggestions made by the Sources Committee (Ancient Indian History) in 1972. However as several details had to be worked out the work was undertaken only towards the end of 1976-77. At the end of the year under report the work was completed and the Council was awaiting the receipt of the volume from Mr A Ghosh, Director of this Project. The dictionary has been planned for fulfilling the long-felt need for a handy volume providing accurate and authentic information about excavated and explored sites and material found in them. It covers the period from the pre-historic times to about A.D. 1200.

Survey Programme

One of the major aims of the Council is to indicate periodically areas and topics on which historical research needs to be promoted. In fulfilment of this aim the Council undertook in 1972-73 the task of surveying the field and reviewing the work done in history during the last 25 years. This will help in finding out in what direction historical knowledge has been changing in style, content, context and perspective. The survey will also be useful in identifying trends that are dying out and the new trends that are emerging and in pointing out the gaps in historical knowledge. It was planned to prepare 26 survey reports. Till the end of 1976-77, nine survey reports were received, of which three were published and the remaining were under examination/publication.

During the year under report a meeting of the Survey Committee was held for reviewing the progress made in the survey work and suggesting new topics of survey for undertaking. The Committee devised steps for expediting the pace of work in the case of on-going surveys and recommended that regional surveys on Punjab, Karnataka, Tamil Nadu, Maharashtra, Gujarat and Bengal besides one on art history may be taken up. A few new assignments were also made in respect of these regional studies.

SPECIAL PROJECTS BEING EXECUTED BY THE ICHR

The Council besides sanctioning projects to scholars and undertaking them on its own also serves as an agency through which some special projects are executed. Details regarding them have been given in reports of previous years. The progress made in them during the year under report is outlined below:

Production of Core Books in History (Translation Project)

The Council received the grant amounting to Rs. 7,21,142 only on 31.3.80. As such an amount of Rs. 3,39,688/- could be expended under this project, including the payment of an amount of Rs. 2,47,707, payable to the Plan Funds of the Council. The balance of Rs. 3,81,454 had to be carried forward to the year 1980-81 for expenditure during that year.

Project on 'Towards Freedom'

As reported earlier, this project was undertaken in 1973 and is being executed in collaboration with the National Archives of India. This envisages the compilation of a series of ten volumes of various types of sources relating to the freedom movement during 1937-47. While official records and other connected material available and preserved in offices of the Central and State Governments are being compiled by the National Archives, the ICHR is engaged in the collection of primary and secondary sources of private and non-governmental nature. So far considerable material for the first three volumes covering the period from 1937 to 1941 have been collected. These are from private papers, newspapers, periodicals, organizational papers, literary sources, pamphlets and booklets, and in one case from oral testimony. The private papers consulted include those of M.S. Aney, R.N. Deshmukh, Mirza M. Ismail, D.P. Mishra, Tej Bahadur Sapru, Shahjanand Saraswati, V.D. Savarkar and H.L. Shastri. The more prominent among the newspapers and periodicals in English consulted by the team were Advance, Bombay Chronicle, The Hindu, Modern Review, Forward Bloc, New Age, Star of India, Statesman and The Tribune. Besides, a number of newspapers and periodicals in Bengali, Hindi, Kannada, Oriya, Punjabi, Telugu and Urdu were also consulted. The organizational papers used by the ICHR team for collection of material included All India Congress Committee papers, 1940-41, All India Hindu Mahasabha papers, 1940-41, All India States Peoples Conference papers regarding Alwar, Bharatpur and Jaipur, 1939, P.C. Joshi Collection, 1940-41, Mahakoshal Provincial Congress Committee papers, 1938-39, Proceedings and Judgement of District Sessions Court, Nellore, October-November, 1937 etc. Some material was culled out from two literary works: Muzaffar Ahmad's Pravandha Samgraha (Bengali) and writings of Gajanan Madhav covering 1930s and 1940s. The pamphlets and booklets brought out by All Mysore Congress Committee were also consulted. The oral testimony obtained was from N.B. Khare.

Project on 'Prajā Mandal Movement'

Undertaken in 1975-76 this project aiming at a comprehensive presentation of the Praja Mandal Movement in the pre-independent Princely States of India has been making progress during successive years under the direction of the Author of the project. During the year under report material was collected from Mahatma Gandhi collection, Tara Chand collection, Rajendra Prasad papers, Hiralal Shastri papers, Jamunlal Bajaj papers, Jaya Narayan Vyas papers, Baribhan Upadhyaya papers, Indore Rajya Praja Mandal papers etc. Besides, collection from the Crown Representatives Records taken up earlier continued. Some records in the Tamil Nadu State Archives relating to popular movements in South Indian princely states were also examined.

SEMINARS

As part of its efforts towards promotion of research and utilization of the fruits of research, the Council has been organizing, sponsoring and supporting seminars, workshops and conferences. During the year the Council sponsored four seminars one each at Ahmedabad, Udaipur, Santiniketan and Calicut and extended aid to 11 conferences, 9 seminars and 2 symposia. Details regarding the aid given are furnished in Appendix VI.

The first seminar sponsored by the ICHR during the year was on "Socio-economic History of Western India" and held at Ahmedabad from 28th to 30th September, 1979. It was organized by the Department of History and Culture, Gujarat Vidyapith and attended by about 40 scholars from Gujarat and Maharashtra. Professor Ramlal Parikh of the Gujarat Vidyapith welcomed the participants and stressed the value and importance of history as one of eternal exploration of human endeavours. Professor B.R.

Grover, Director, ICHR in his address underlined the objectives of ICHR in promoting historical research through such seminars. Among the main speakers in the seminar were Professor R.N. Mehta (Socio-economic History of Western India) and Professor B.R. Grover (Methodology of Research on Problems of Agrarian History of Gujarat during the period from the late 16th to the 18th century). A number of young research scholars and some in the middle level of their professional ladder presented interesting papers covering such topics as position of peasantry, swadeshi movement in the context of the growth of textile industry, quantitative techniques in the writing of socio-economic history, institution of marriage and position of women, famines, social stratification, socio-economic history of tribals etc

The seminar at Udaipur was on "Socio-economic History of Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh during the medieval and modern periods" and held from 10th to 12th November, 1979. It was organized by the Department of History, University of Udaipur, and inaugurated by Professor Satish Chandra, Chairman, University Grants Commission. Dr Rajnath Singh, Vice-Chancellor of the University, welcomed the participants. Professor B.R. Grover, Director, ICHR underlined the need for a proper understanding of the socio-economic institutions of medieval and late medieval Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh for a purposeful comprehension of the main currents of the socio-economic history of northern India as a whole. He also briefly outlined the efforts made by ICHR in the direction of promotion of research through seminars and other means. Six key papers by different scholars were presented and discussed. A number of scholars from Rajasthan and Madhya Pradesh spoke on subjects broadly related to the main theme of the seminar.

The seminar at Calicut was on "Land Control and Social Formations with special reference to South India" and held from 10th to 12th March, 1980. It was organized by the Department of History, University of Calicut and inaugurated by Professor T.K. Ravindran, Head, Department of History, University of Kerala, Trivandrum. The seminar was attended by about 200 scholars including 40 delegates. Among the key speakers were professor M.G.S. Narayanan, Head, Department of History, University of Calicut and Professor D.N. Jha, Department of History, University of Delhi. Twentyfour scholars presented papers relating to the one or the other aspect of the central theme of the seminar.

The seminar at Santiniketan was more in the nature of a useful workshop. The subject of the seminar was "Socio-economic and Cultural History of North Eastern Region". It was held from 19th to 21st March, 1980 and organized by the Vishwa Bharati University under the supervision of Professor Ashin Das Gupta. Bibliographies and reading materials were supplied to the participants. The inaugural address was delivered by Professor T.K. Roychowdhury who spoke on "Teaching History in B.A. Pass and Hons. Classes". Eight papers on such subjects as religious history, social history, renaissance, medieval society, cotton industry etc. were presented and discussed.

During the year the Council held the General Conference of International Congress of Philosophy and Humanistic Sciences at New Delhi. Details regarding this conference are provided in page 12.

INTERNATIONAL COLLABORATION: PROMOTION OF CONTACTS BETWEEN INDIAN AND FOREIGN HISTORIANS

In pursuance of its policy of promoting closer and purposeful contacts between Indian and foreign historians and facilitating a mutually profitable sharing of the experience and expertise in the field of historical investigation the Council during the year under report, as in previous years, took a number of measures like (i) providing financial assistance to Indian scholars whose visits to foreign countries were essential in connection with their research work, (ii) enabling Indian historians to participate in international and other conferences held in foreign countries, (iii) associating ICHR in international ventures in the field of history etc.

Grants were sanctioned to the following four scholars to enable them to visit places in foreign countries where material essential for their research are available:

- (i) Professor Mohibul Hasan, Aligarh

- (ii) Professor Fauja Singh, Patiala
- (iii) Miss Shamala Bhatia, Delhi
- (iv) Miss Padmavathi, New Delhi

Details regarding the grants and the subject of their studies are given in Appendix IV.

During the year the Council sanctioned grant to the following five scholars to participate in different international congresses/ conferences:

- (i) Dr T.R. De Souza, Pune
- (ii) John Correia, Affonso, S.J., Bombay
- (iii) Dr B.C. Chakravarty, New Delhi
- (iv) Professor A.C. Bose, Jammu
- (v) Professor P.S. Gupta, Delhi

Details regarding the grants and the conferences/ congresses attended by them are given in Appendix IV.

A major activity in the field of international collaboration in which ICHR participated during the year was the holding of the General Conference of International Congress of Philosophy and Humanistic Sciences (CIPSH) at New Delhi from 25th November to 2nd December, 1979. The ICHR is the adhering body in India of the International Council of Historical Sciences (CISH) which is affiliated to the CIPSH. The CIPSH is the chief Unesco body to which 13 organizations (including CISH) in the field of humanities, languages and philosophy are affiliated. The conference held by ICHR was attended by about forty delegates from different countries belonging to different fields.

The conference was inaugurated by Dr Karan Singh, the then Education Minister. Professor B.R. Grover, Director, ICHR welcomed the delegates and spoke on the useful role being played by CIPSH in the field of the pursuit of art, culture, linguistics and philosophy. Professor S. Nurul Hasan, Professor Lallanji Gopal and Professor P.S. Gupta (the last two being members of ICHR) were nominated by ICHR for participation in the conference. Professor Satish Chandra, Vice-President of the CIPSH and a member of ICHR presided over one of the sessions of the conference. During the conference a symposium on "The Indian Ocean : A Cultural Crossroad" was organized. The ICHR delegates also presented papers and took fervent part in the deliberations of the Symposium.
